2. Information We Collect

We collect information directly from you and automatically through your use of the Allegion Applications. To the extent permitted by law or with your consent, we may combine all of the information that we collect about you from various sources.

Information we collect directly from you. We collect information from you when you register to access the Allegion Applications, populate or update your account information (including your user profile) on the Allegion Applications, apply for a job with us or register to our talent management platform, request information from us, contact us, or otherwise use our products and services through the Allegion Applications. The information we collect varies depending on your interaction with us, and may include, but is not limited to, identifiers like your name, mailing address, telephone numbers, fax number, and e-mail address, as well as commercial information like billing address, transaction and payment information (including financial account numbers or credit or debit card numbers), and purchase history. We also collect any other information that you choose to provide to us (e.g., registration information if you register for one of our training programs or subscribe to our My Allegion News newsletter, such as username and password; drawings or design content if you interact with one of our product or specification collaboration applications; information you provide while participating in discussion forums; or professional or employment-related information like job function or information you provide when you apply for a job with us or register to receive information about career opportunities at Allegion) through the Allegion Applications.

If you choose not to provide us with any personal data you may not be able to take advantage of the Allegion Applications' offerings (e.g. access to informational, marketing or collaboration-related content).

Information we collect when you visit our Allegion Applications. When you visit our Allegion Applications, the information that we automatically collect includes, but is not limited to: domain name; device and browser type and operating system; search terms and other usage information (including web scrolling, browsing, and click data to determine what webpages are viewed and links are clicked); geolocation; Internet protocol ("IP") address; the date, time, and length on the Allegion Applications or using our applications or services; and the referring URL, search engine, or the web page that led you to our Allegion Applications. The legal basis for such processing is our legitimate interest to ensure the stability and security of the Allegion Applications, which is technically necessary for us to provide you with these services.

Information we collect through cookies when you visit our Allegion Applications: With regard to personal information we collect through cookies, web beacons, and other technologies when you visit our Allegion Applications or use our related services we refer to the section "Cookies and Tracking Mechanisms" below.

To the extent permitted by law or with your consent, we may combine this information with other information that we have collected about you, including from our vendors who help us provide services to you. Please see "Cookies and Tracking Mechanisms" below for more information.
